THE GRAHAMS AND McNEILLS

---1760---1860---

After the American Revolution there was a great migration from the eastern states into the west and southwest, as the Indian lands were acquired and opened for white settlement; and in the early 1800's our Grahams and McNeills joined this movement and came to southeast Mississippi.

Originally from Scotland, these people had settled in North Carolina. In 1800, Zachariah Graham with wife, Flora, and one child, was in North Hampton County, North Carolina. In 1810, he was in Moore County, with wife and six children. By 1814 or 1815 these people were on their way to Mississippi, coming down through Georgia, across Alabama, and into southeast Mississippi. This was before the Mississippi Territory was divided into states. In the census of 1816, taken preparatory to forming the states, Zachariah Graham is listed as head of family in the original County of Wayne in Mississippi. Also in this list is Robert Graham, who we are sure is kin to Zachariah, although the exact relation is not clear. Robert Graham was also in Moore County, N.C., in 1800. Later on these two are in the same census and tax lists in Wayne County, and are co-workers in the old Philadelphus Church at Waynesboro.

ZACHARIAH GRAHAM

From census records and other information we find Zachariah Graham and wife Flora to have seven sons and two daughters, but the list is incomplete:

1. Susannah, *b. 1796 or 1797, m. Angus McNeill *
Alexander, b. 1795 - ?
Zachariah.
Archie, b. 1811
Elliott, b. 1813
John, b. 1815.

ANGUS McNEILL

1792-93, - 1833

The families of Zachariah Graham and Angus McNeill were so constantly close together that we shall relate their history together.

Angus McNeill, born about 1792, presumably in North Carolina, married Susannah Graham, daughter of Zachariah and Flora Graham. We have no documented information regarding the early life of this couple, (Angus and Susannah McNeill) but we assume that they came with the Grahams in their migration, as their first child, Catherine, was born in Alabama in 1815-16. Apparently the families stopped a while in Alabama, while Zachariah and Robert Graham went ahead into southeast Mississippi to locate a homestead.

We next find these people in Wayne County, Mississippi, before 1820, where Angus and Susannah McNeill had their next five children:

Cornelius, b. 1819.
Flora, b. December 20, 1821. *
John, b. 1823.
William, b. 1827.
Caroline, b. 1830.

The Grahams and McNeills were devout Presbyterians, and were active members of the group that organized the old Philadelphus Church at Waynesboro, Miss. Robert Graham was also a member of that church, and died in February, 1825. The Grahams and McNeills lived in Wayne County until 1832, when Zachariah Graham and Angus McNeill with their families left Mississippi and went back to Alabama, settling this time in Sumpter County, where at Livingston, the county seat, they helped organize the Presbyterian Church.

L-1

In Sumpter County, Alabama, two more children were born to the McNeills;

Susan A, b. 1833.
Jane, b. 1834.

These Scotchmen were very strict in their religious beliefs and tolerated no frivolity among their fellow church members. Back in Wayne County, Miss., one record of the old church states that, "Mr. W. G--- Appeared again and not giving full satisfaction as to his Christian walk and conversation he was not received." And, in 1831; "Mr. Graham was appointed a committee to inquire of D. McR-- as to the truth of a report in circulation that he permitted fiddling ( sic ) and dancing in his house on a certain occasion. Mr. Graham reported that Mr. McR-- acknowledged the truth of the report and promised with much tender contrition in the future not to allow such practice in his house."

In the church records at Livingston, Ala., it is recorded that; a member was tried for "telling a smutty story", and when he denied doing so he was tried for telling a lie.

Most of the people of that day made their living by farming, and there was little employment otherwise. The Grahams and McNeills ranked well in public matters and church affairs. In Sumpter County, Alabama, in 1833, <sup>Angus McNeill</sup> was on a committee concerned with some road work.

Angus McNeill died sometime between September 1, 1833, and February, 1834. Susannah McNeill was appointed guardian of her eight children by Orphans Court of Sumpter County, Alabama, February 3, 1834.

On September 1, 1834, Catherine McNeill married Needham Holifield, in Sumpter County, Alabama.

In 1836, the Grahams and Susannah McNeill sold their land in Alabama and moved back to Mississippi; this time to Kemper County. In the census of 1840 we find all of them, also Needham Holifield and Catherine, living there. At that time Flora McNeill had married Neill McNeill Little and they were living over in Newton County. Cornelius was married and living with wife, Pamela, in Kemper County; and they have a daughter less than five years old. They later moved to Newton County. The other five children are with Susannah Zachariah Graham and wife, Flora, apparently are living with their son, Alexander, in 1840, as the census shows a man 70 to 80 years old and a woman 60 to 70 years old living with him. Zachariah Graham apparently died between 1840 and 1850, as the census of Kemper County for the year 1850 shows only Flora Graham.

* By 1850 Caroline Graham has married Nicholas Davis, and they are living down in Jasper County, (as we discover in the story of The Reverend Duncan Alexander Little, in that chapter of the Little history.)

By 1860 William McNeill and family are in Jasper County.

Also, in 1860, Susannah Graham is found living with Nicholas and Caroline Davis. (as is also D. A. Little, son of Flora and Neill Little.) At this writing we do not have a record of Susannah's death.

Bro. Stephen Pilley married Sarah Graham
Graham's Church

New Orleans Christian Advocate, March 27, 1879

"This church was called Graham's Church, and Bro. William Graham had been class-leader, but who unfortunately had been drowned a few weeks before, and to whose daughter (Sarah Graham) Bro Pilley was engaged to be married, and which was consummated soon after." See complete article below.

Pilley-Graham Marriage

New Orleans Christian Advocate, April 16, 1874

1833 - Stephen Fatherly Pilley married Sarah B. Graham, daughter of William Graham and Elizabeth Cumbest. "Stephen Pilley was born in Edgecomb County, North Carolina July 5, 1805 and was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1833, and the same year was married to Miss S. B. Graham; was licensed to exhort March 14, 1834, and just one year from that time, to a day, was licensed to preach." This is a quote from a sketch of his life written by J. W. Shores after Pilly's death in November of 1873. Stephen and Sarah had thirteen children. Those mentioned in the biography were:

1st son, William Pilley "was a local preacher"

2nd son, Rev. Stephen A. Pilley, member of the Alabama Methodist Conference.

Charles B. Pilley, "student in Southern University is licensed to preach."

Daughter is wife of Rev. Benjamin L. Selman, member of the Ala Methodist Conference.

Daughter, deceased, was the wife of Rev. Mr. Mathews, Presbyterian Church minister.

ALSO: The children listed in Cumbest and Allied Families, page 10, by Melba Goff Allen were Stephen Pilley, William Pilley, Charles Pilley, Robert Pilley, George Pilley, Henry Pilley, Mattie Pilley, Liza Pilley and Sally Pilley. See the Pilley Family File in the Pascagoula Public Library.

Rev. Pilley by A. C. Ramsay

The New Orleans Christian Advocate, March 27, 1879

Another biography about Rev. Stephen F. Pilley, deceased, was written by Rev. A. C. Ramsay February 20, 1870 in Camden, Arkansas and much more Graham, Cumbest and Jackson County history is revealed. Rev. Ramsay gives his mailing address as Gadsen, Alabama.

Jackson County Genealogical Society Journal –Volume 17 – Four issues in one – January to December 2000

Rev Ramsay states, "I am the only preacher now living who knew him before his conversion, and was associated with him intimately for several years afterward. I was present when he was converted, and the next year took him into the church. I write this, Mr. Editor, for the benefit and satisfaction of his aged widow (Mrs. Sarah Graham Pilley, age 63) and large family of children, several of whom are in the ministry, and this I do without their knowledge or solicitation."

"At the Conference held in Tuscaloosa, Ala., in the latter part of 1832, I was admitted on trial in that Conference, and appointed junior preacher on the Chickasawha circuit, in connection with Bro. Job Foster, preacher in charge. This circuit extended at that time from Washington Court-House, in Alabama, to near the coast on the Pascagoula river, in Jackson County, Mississippi."

"On my first round on that circuit I met Mr. Pilley at the house of Father Wells, on the lower part of the circuit, spent a pleasant night with him, found him a man of intelligence, apparently gifted in conversation, and disposed to talk on the subject of religion. I asked him to accompany me the next day to my appointment, to which he readily consented. My appointment that day was at a private house - Sister Cumbust (Cumbest). Here I observed Mr. Pilley appeared very attentive to what I had to say, and manifested some interest in the services, and which was more fully shown by his continuing with me, and going to my next appointment, six miles below, which was the extreme southern appointment on the circuit.

We reached the neighborhood that evening, and were quartered at the house of an old friend and acquaintance of mine, Jesse Graves, who was then blind, but whose soul was filled with love and the fire of the Holy Ghost. He proposed that we have meeting or services of some kind that night at his house. And here let me say, Mr. Editor, that in those times, where the preacher made his four week's rounds on his large circuit preaching generally every day in the week, and, when not preaching, riding, that it was no uncommon thing for him to preach also at night, and often in private houses. The good brethren demanded it. So, in this case, old Uncle Jesse Graves' wishes must be attended to accordingly.

Mr. Pilley volunteered his services to go around and notify the community. A small congregation assembled in due time; the timid young preacher did the best he could, and at the close called for mourners; the first one who approached was my traveling companion, Mr. Pilley, who knelt at my feet in the chair behind which I had stood while trying to talk to the people. Earnest prayers were offered for him and others who had approached. Here Mr. Pilley was converted. Here he consecrated himself to God and his cause. The next day I had service at the church; opened the door, and Mr. Pilley immediately came forward and gave me his hand and name and he was enrolled as a probationer in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

"Such was the geographical shape and arrangement of the circuit that my colleague and I met every round. I informed him of the fact of the loss of a class-leader at this appointment, and told him of Bro. Pilley's conversion, etc., and intimated that I would not be surprised if he (Pilley) would not yet fill the place of leader, and that he had better see to it when he got down there. Said he: I will give that matter up to you, and on your next round, if you find he (Pilley) will fill the place, although a probationer, appoint him, as there are no others that would probably do.”

“So before I got to that appointment, on my next round, I heard that Pilley was married and preaching. The facts were these: As soon as he married he had family prayers in his mother-in-law’s family, (Elizabeth Cumbest Graham) and he and old Bro. Graves met at the church every Sunday, and held devine service, he reading and commenting on some parts of the Holy Scriptures; and such was the character of these lectures that it was reported he could beat any of the preachers, and no doubt this was true in regard to many of us. I appointed him leader, and some time afterward, by the unanimous recommendation of his society, licensed him as an exhorter, and at the last Quarterly Conference of that year he obtained license to preach, if my memory is correct.

He exercised as a local preacher until the fall of 1835, when he obtained a recommendation to the Annual Conference to join the traveling connection, which Annual Conference met in Tuscaloosa, Ala. Here his recommendation was presented; objections to his admission were urged by some of the preachers, principally the old ones. First, on the ground that he had a wife and child; secondly, that he had at one time in his life been connected with the theater, and was a great fiddler, loved fun and frolic, etc., but it was asked if he had been a drunkard, a profane man, a murderer, etc. No, nothing of this kind could be alleged against him. Well, has he been in the theater, or done anything wrong of this kind since he embraced religion? Not that we know of; but here’s that wife and child coming in to tax the church, etc.”

“It was somewhat unfortunate for the good brother that there were very few in the Conference who knew him - Bro. T. Moody, Bro. Daniel Barlow, his presiding elder, and myself. Some discussion took place, mostly from the opposing wing of the Conference, Bro. Moody and Bro. Barlow advocating strongly his admission into the Conference. And now, Mr. Editor, don’t charge me with egotism when I speak of my first speech that I ever made in a Conference. I took the ground that some of our old brethren were certainly very inconsistent in opposing this brother because he had once been a sinner - had been an actor-whereas I had no doubt that they had once been sinners, probably very bad once, too, guilty of worse sins than playing the fiddle, or acting on the stage, and yet they professed to be changed, converted, their sins forgiven, but would not admit that the same divine power could be efficient in the conversion of Bro. Pilley. That he was a changed man, I had no doubt. And as to the wife and child, I did not think there was any sin in that; and if it was wrong to take a married man into the Conference, they ought to adopt the rule of forbidding the preachers of marrying at all; for I say but little difference in taking one in already married, than to allow them the privilege to do so as soon as they chose afterward.

In addressing the Bishop I recollect making this remark: “That if he thought me worthy of circuit and colleague the last year I would as soon risk Bro. Pilley as any one on that floor untried.” He was admitted, and when the appointments were read out by Bishop Soule, who presided in that Conference, it was: “Leaf River Circuit, A. C. Ramsay and Stephen Pilley.”

“This circuit embraced a large territory in eastern Mississippi, commencing at Dwire’s ferry, on the Pascagoula river, in Jackson county, passing through that county, thence through Perry into Wayne, thence into Clark, and through Jasper to Garlandville, into Newton County, returning through the western part of Jasper into the corner of Covington, through Jones into the western portion of Perry, and thence through Hancock to Jackson, the starting point."

"Bro Pilley was on hand in due time, obtained board for his wife and child at Bro. Willis Holder's on Red Creek, in the lower part of the circuit, near the starting point.

Here Bro. Pilley entered the itinerant college, to be absent from his family five weeks at a time - no chance, as is now, to come home during the entire round - and when the round was made, but only a few days with his family, and while out riding or preaching every day, contending with swollen rivers and creeks, on many of which were no ferry boats or bridges, consequently had to depend on foot-logs upon which to convey over his wardrobe and library and traveling accouterments, and swim his horse, this Mr. Editor, was itinerancy in earnest of the olden time. But, notwithstanding all the obstacles and privations that constantly loomed up before him, he never flinched or murmured, never missed an appointment when he could possibly get to it, pursued his studies faithfully, doing a great deal of his reading on horseback, improved constantly in preaching, universally beloved, and did a good work, so that the presiding elder (Bro. Elisha Calloway) was enabled to report him a good, safe case, at the next Conference."

"At the close of that year our Conference was held in Mobile. Bro. Pilley was on hand before the committee of Examination, who reported him up with his studies, and recommended his continuance on trial. At this Conference, presided over by Bishop Morris, when the appointments were announced, to my surprise it was again: A. C. Ramsay and Stephen Pilley, to the Cedar Creek circuit."

"This circuit embraced a part of Monro, Wilcox, Dallas, Lowndes and Butler counties, in Alabama. Bro. Pilley, as before, was prompt in getting to the circuit; and after obtaining a boarding place for his family, went to work, as usual, did a good year's work, made many friends and left the circuit one boy richer than when he came to it. Here during that year (1837) his son, now the Rev. Stephen Abiezer Pilley, of the Alabama Conference, was born, who bears the name of his father, and the writer of this sketch, whose name on the list of appointments is generally written and known as S. A. Pilley."

"Bro. Pilley traveled the Belleville circuit in 1838, since which time I have not been as intimately associated with him as formerly; but of his life and history after this his family and the church have them."

"I shall only add that I met with him several times during the interval between my intimate connection with him and his death, and invariably found him the same quiet, reflecting, firm, conscientious Christian gentleman that he was in early life. Hoping and praying that the blessings of Almighty God may continue to rest upon his widow and children, and that the mantle of the father may have fallen upon his sons, and that they may wear it with honor to his name, in honor to themselves and to their God whose cause they have espoused, I bid them farewell."

Notes: The spelling "Burnis" appears on Burnis Leonard's gravestone in Crawford Methodist Cemetery, Mobile Cnty, AL. In Jackson County censuses of 1820 through 1860, his name was spelled "Burness". Nancy Louise and Martha were twins..

Uncertainty surrounds the place of John Wesley Graham Sr.'s death and burial place. See Appendix J for further details.

After the war, his widow moved from Fairley's Ferry in Jackson County to the Union Church community in Mobile County, where her cousin, Amelia Graham Lyons, was living. A note in family files records that Nancy Graham lived with the family of Frederick and Sara Fincher after she moved to the Union Church community. On Sep 11, 1867, Nancy married Moses Jenkins, twelve years her junior in age. The family was listed as living with Jenkins in the Mobile County census taken in July 1870 in Beat 1 of Mobile County, but the census taker found them again in Beat 7 during September, 1870, when Jenkins was not listed as living with the family. The 1880 Mobile County census listed Nancy Jenkins as living with her sons, Burnis and Philip.

Notes: Late in his life, William Graham was referred to by Graham relatives as "Old Bill Graham." He was listed as a coal burner in the Jackson County census of 1870. Charcoal production was an important industry in Jackson County. Pine tree branches and other discarded parts not suitable for timber were placed in teepee shaped piles and covered with earth. The wood was heated in the oxygen poor environment until it became carbonized, creating charcoal. The charcoal makers sold or bartered their products to local merchants, who shipped the fuel to New Orleans via boat.

Letter written by William Graham, who served in Company L (Twiggs Rifles) of the 27th Infantry Regiment during the Civil War.

Camp near Chattanooga
July 8th, 1863

Dear friend;

With great pleasure I Embrace this fine sent oportuntiy of dropping you a few lines to inform you that i am well at the present and hoping these few badly riten lines may reach your hands and find you and family enjoying the same blesing. And now for to tell you something about our march from Shelbyvill here I have got on dry clothes today for the first time since we left Shelbyvill, we left there on the twenty seventh of June which is twelve days ago when my clothes were not wet with rain they was with swet. It rained every day It has bin the wetest weather i believe i ever saw. We had to cross the Cumberlin mountmans. And, the worst of all was that we did not git enough to eat. The rations was drawn but we did not git it they would not let us stop to cook it, and it was waisted there was at one time for two days that we did not git but one meal. Rosangrant would not fight Bragg at Tulahoma nor at Deckard. Bragg offered him battle at both places, But he kept on going round us trying to flank us git in our rear and burn the bridges on the railroad and cut off our supplies from Chattanooga. So we was obliged to fall back from there. But i dont think that they got much when they got it all that i hated was that the wheat crop was not geathered yet. It was just cut and stacked in the fields as is true it would have bin much better If we could have held it. They enemy got a good many of our boys that was not able to keep up. I can not tell you any thing about where we will go from here if we will stay here or not. Address your letters to Chattanooga and i will git them there is a distributing post office there that knows where ever reg't is. It is reported here today that Vickburg was taken but i do not know if it is true or not, how ever i hope it is false news. You must let me know something about Miller in you next letter. In my last letter to you there was one in it for Mrs. Ellis it was wrot on the twenty seventh of June as well as I reclect. Well i believe I have old you all that I can for the present you will excuse the bad righting for i am so nervous that i can scearsly hold my pen this so badly riten that i am almost ashamed to send it to you how ever i hope you will be able to reed it. Hoping to see you soo, I will bring my letter to a close by saying I remain your Affectionate friend until death

.Williiam Graham kin to Ellen Miller Mr & Mrs Now may the blessings of God be with you all is the prayer of your affectionate friend.

Graham Kinship From the Southern States

This page of Graham men is given in hopes someone can provide proof of thier relationship.

Family records states there were at least three Graham brothers, William, Laird and Joseph who came to the Mississippi Territory. One born in PA., and the other two born in GA. The parents of the brothers are not known. At some time the unknown parents moved to Georgia where Laird and Joseph were born. Their older brother William was born in PA.

The brothers did not travel from Georgia to the Territory together according to the Georgia Passports issued by the Governor of Georgia.

James Graham may be a brother since William and James traveled westward together in 1811. James was from Richmond Co. NC., while William was from the adjacent County of Cumberland. This may indicate the family moved back to North Carolina after the two younger brothers were born in GA.

James Graham had three passports to travel through Creek Indian Nation. The first was in 1808. Copies from letters of Benjamin Hawkins Agent for Indian Affairs South of Ohio in Volume IX Georgia Historical Society, pages 355-258 state that James Graham, to trade in the Creeks for cattle and hogs. Joseph Graham was his assistant.

John Graham was the issued a passport to travel through Creek Indian Nation in 1801 with his family. John was to settled on the Tom or the Don Bigby.

Nothing has been proven on the early Graham men, their closeness does indicate a kinship, but what relation? Brother's, Cousin's?

Laird Graham Born in Georgia

Researcher for this family is Tom McRae of Charlotte, North Carolina

Laird Graham was born in Georgia in 1785, according to the 1850 Jackson Co. MS.

Little is known about the early life of Laird Graham. The name of his wife is not known and she is not listed in his household when the 1850 census was taken.

Children:

- 1. Daughter (1) born between 1825 and 1830

2. Daughter (2) born between 1825 and 1830
3. John Wesley Graham, born 1831
4. Delphine Graham, born 1841
5. William Graham, born 1842 or 1843; died in 1890

Notes: In the 1820 Jackson County census, Laird Graham was living with another male of his age plus a female over 45 years of age. The male may have been a fourth Graham brother named John; William and Joseph were listed elsewhere in that census.

The elder woman probably was Laird's mother; and his father had died before 1820. The dates for the children's births are derived from the Jackson County census' of 1830, 1840 and 1850.

FAGGARD HISTORY

Susanah Faggard lived on the old Faggard home located on the now Wade-Vancleave road. She was the widow of, William Edward Faggard, b. 1837 MS. and d. 20 April, 1884. At the time of his death he left eight children, the oldest being Nancy Varina Faggard who married James Davis and just eighteen years old. The youngest child a son, was James Porter Faggard and being one year old.

Susanah was the daughter of Joseph Graham and wife Nancy Lyons Graham, Joseph was the son of William C. Graham and wife, Mary Elisabeth Cumbest Graham. Therefore, both Rob and Nita are Cumbest descendants.

William Edward Faggard was the son of John G. Faggard, b. 1802 S.C. d. 1832 and wife, Lucinda b. 1810 GA., she died Sept. 1849 in Jackson Co..

The old Faggard home was one of much interest. It was originally owned by Jack Graham who settled on a spanish land grant of 318.37 acres of land in 1813. Mr Graham a successful, but rather singular and peculiar character, notorious for his lack of interest in the fairer sex, begun general farming in Pascagoula River swamp and on the hills surrounding his home as soon as he settled here.

The Old Wire Road that once ran to Graham's ferry passed here, and many are the travelers who stopped and spent the night at the "Old Faggard Home." When Andrew Jackson rushed from Pensacola to New Orleans to fight Packenhem, it is said that he and his soldiers camped for the night with Graham; and that the General himself slept in what was then the new log house. William E. Faggard, a member of the Twiggs Rifles during the war between the States, later came into possession of the place and his home was known far and wide as a refuge for the wayfarer and traveler. The above was taken from the State Historical Research Project. For more Faggard history see Goff and Allied Families chapter eight.

Jerry Heitzmann

Dear Jerry

Enjoyed our conversation on the phone back in September. Also received the information you sent. Thanks. I agree with you, the Susan Graham mentioned on the Choctaw Rolls is not Pish-chen-ock-le, nor is she the daughter of Turner Ward.

I have the lives of the Susannah Graham and Annie V. Llewellyn, that are mention on the Choctaw Rolls pretty well mapped out. Annie V. Llewellyn was the daughter of Susan Brashear and John B. Stewart Sr., and she got the name Llewellyn from her marriage to Samuel Llewellyn. Susan Brashears got the Graham name from her marriage to George Graham. She (Susan) was the daughter of Zadoc Brashears and Susanna Vaughn.

There is quite a lot of information about Susan Graham Stewart Brashears and her father Zadoc in Louisiana Parish records (particularly Feliciana Parish). In the records concerning the will (succession) and death of John B. Stewart; and the afterwards Susan Graham versus the heirs of John B. Stewart (East Feliciana Parish, starting 5 Jan 1829) it shows Susan Stewart Graham wife of George Graham so she probably married George Graham in late 1828 and he probably (I don't know) died prior to 1832. I'm not sending John B. Stewart's succession and court records viz Susan vs heirs because they are almost a hundred pages of 8 x 14 size paper. Susan for a while after Dancing Rabbit Creek signing lived in Carroll County, Ms in which she is recorded in a number of deeds and her will was giving in Hinds County, Mississippi in 1850.

Ann V. Llewellyn after the death, ca 1829, of Samuel Llewellyn married Joseph R. Plummer, the brother Franklin Plummer the State Representative from Simpson Co., Mississippi, and they had a son Joseph R. Plummer Jr..

Susan was not a poor old lady that Franklin Plummer tried to represent in his letters to State Department about her. Her husband John B. Stewart was quite well off, and later after his death Susan own shares in a Carroll Co. Bank. Concerning the children of Susan Graham and John B. Stewart: Mary B. married Hardy S. Crump; Ann V. married Samuel Llewellyn, later Joseph Plummer; Susan P. married Emphriam Lloyd (instigator of most of the court battles with Susan); and John Jr. (I forget at the moment who he married).

Interestingly enough, all with the exception of John B. Jr. who was to young, they all signed their own names which means they all had some education.

Again thanks for the information your sent, hope the information herein provides some help to you.

the States, as will entitle her to a reservation of land under the provisions under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? If it is not, please to inform me what she must do in order to secure her a reservation under said article in case she neglected to signify her intentions within six months from said ratification of the treaty. Can it be done without a special act permitting her to do so? She is an intelligent and good woman, but a poor widow, and thinks that the agent and the leading men of the nation do not intend to do her justice. She did make application to register her name within six months, but thinks that it will not be returned; and that it is the intention of Leflore and Ward to confine her to the provisions of the cultivation clause in the 19th article of said treaty.

The name Ann V.L.L McEllyn is also registered on the same page, with this memorandum under the head of "general remarks" "Settlement made in spring, 1830. Since the treaty lived with her mother." It is true, I believe, that she has lived with her mother, Susan Graham; but her hands (negros) have been ever since the spring of 1830, actually on, and cultivating, the land under her direction and control. There is also a mistake in the spelling of her name; her name is "Ann V. Llewellyn". Will these facts, or either of them, exclude her from the benefit of the 14th article of the treaty? Mrs. Llewellyn also signified to the agent, within the time prescribed, her intention of remaining and becoming a citizen; but anticipates the intentions of the agent, and others, to confine her to the cultivation clause, or exclude her entirely from the land provisions of the treaty.

I respectfully ask your opinion of these points at the request of the Committee of the Public Lands to whom the subject has been referred, who will be governed in their report according to the opinions you may express. Most respectfully, Your obedient servant, F.E. Plummer"146

The form Mr. Plummer was referring to listed Susan as having 5 in the entire household (1 male over 16); Ward's Register list her as a half breed woman having one child over 10. In 1830 Susan (sometimes called Susannah) had more than 50 acres of land under cultivation with a dwelling house thereon.

There were other correspondence on behalf of Susan Graham and Annie V. Llewellyn between Plummer, the Office of Indian Affairs and the Secretary of War. "House of Representatives, 4 January 1831. Dear Sir: Mrs. Susan Graham, a widow, of the Choctaw nation, registered her name with the agent within six months after the ratification of the treaty of "Dancing Rabbit Creek," for the purpose of entitling her to a section of land under the provisions of the 14th article of that treaty. She is apprehensive from some cause, that it has been not been entered of record, nor forwarded to the War Department. Please inform me on this subject. Most respectfully, your obedient servant, F. E. Plummer. Hon. Lewis Cass, Secretary of War."147

If the Government possesses the power, under the treaty, to release Mrs. Graham from her engagement to become a citizen. I think it would be for the public interest to permit her to take reservation under the 19th article, as she requests. I have the hon. & c., Elbert Herring. Hon. Lewis Cass, Secretary of War."150

Zadoc Brashears, the eldest son of Jessie and Elizabeth Prather Brashears, received land in Township 16, R1 E Section 18, Sumter County, Alabama by the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, probably by virtue of his marriage (second wife) to Rachel Durant, who was Indian (Creek). Zadoc disposed of his vast holdings in Feliciana Parish and moved to Alabama.

Zadoc lived in Feliciana Parish, La, from 1787 to 1830, when he moved to Alabama. The family of Zadoc Brashears lived near Black Bluff in the Demopolis, Alabama area.

He married Susanna Vaughn.

Jesse Brashears married Elizabeth Prather. Chancery papers #2617, Land Office, Annapolis, Maryland show that Jessie Brashears married Elizabeth Prather, born 6 May 1740. The Brashears were Huguenots and the Prathers came from Wiltshire, England. This couple later moved to Pensacola, Florida, and kept an Inn. The record of the deed from John Hicktail to Jessie Brashears for the Pensacola property is dated 24 Nov 1778, and consisted of "one part of a town lot of ground, and the whole of garden lot #26."

Jessie, Elizabeth and family came to Feliciana Parish, Louisiana, in 1787, where several of their children married Indians who lived in the vicinity of Pearl River, which separates present-day Louisiana and Mississippi.

In 1830, the U.S. Government decreed that all Indians living in Louisiana Family tradition has it that Annie V. Llewellyn and John Holliday had one child Sarah (Sally). Annie V. is said to have been a full blood Indian, however there is no evidence to prove this. She was supposedly buried in a field in Simpson County, Mississippi. The cemetery was later plowed over for farm land.

An Annie V. Llewellyn applied for citizenship on 13 August 1831 on the Armstrong Rolls of Indians who wished to become citizens of the United States provided for under the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. This Annie V. was part Choctaw (not full blood). Under the heading of children it noted 0 for under 10; 1 over 10; half breed woman, living on a farm near the mouth of the Big Black River.

This Annie V. Llewellyn's mother was Susan Graham, and she married a Samuel Llewellyn in 1829 in Feliciana Parrish, Louisiana. He died three months after they were married. Later she married Joseph R. Plummer; once of Simpson County and later Sherif of Carroll County, Mississippi.

A Mrs. Dear, great granddaughter of Thomas Shorter, wrote in her bible the following information provided her by her great uncle Andrew Shorter: Annie V. Llewellyn (daughter of Mushalatubbee, Chowtaw Chief of Southwest Mississippi, signer of Dancing Rabbit Treaty) married John Halliday. They had one child Sara who married William Taylor.<sup>92</sup>

Note: It is not known if the Annie V. Llewellyn mentioned in the Armstrong Rolls and the daughter of Susan Graham is the same as the one who bore the child of John Holliday.

Ann V Llewellyn (Stewart) , after the death of Samuel J Llewellyn, married Joseph R. Plummer, brother of Franklin E. Plummer. Joseph was long time sherieff of Holmes County. He also owned land in Simpson County, MS at one time.

Notorial Records of E Fel Parish, La show Ann V. Llewellyn in Book B page 151, 1829 and in Book B page 8.

She married Samuel Llewellyn, 16 Nov 1828 in E Feliciana Par., Louisiana, USA.

Susan Graham sold in 1829 to Samuel McMinus land on Redwood Creek originally part of tract of land granted by the Spanish goverment to Zadock Brashiers.

Susan Graham, mother of Ann V Llewellyn, was living near Rankin, Mississippi in 1832. She was a mixed-breed Choctaw Indian woman. At the time, 1832, she was concerned that she would not get the land promised her by the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. A friend, Mr. Franklin E. Plummer, wrote the following letter on her behalf to the then Secretary of War, Hon. Lewis Cass:

"Dear Sir: I beg leave so trouble you again on the subject of the claims of some of my Indian friends and constituents to land under the late treaty with the Choctaws.

I find, on examination of the return made to the War Department, the name of Susan Graham registered among the "names of Indians owning farms" that she cultivated one hundred and ten acres, valued at six hundred and forty dollars, &c. "Department of War, Office of Indian Affairs, 10 March 1832. Sir: In obedience to your direction to report on the claims of Susannah Graham and Ann V. Lewellen to reservations of land under the late Choctaw treaty concluded at Dancing Rabbit Creek, which claims were presented by the honorable F. E. Plummer, I have the honor to state that, on the register made by the agent, Colonel Ward, and transmitted to this office, of the names of the Choctaw Indians, who had legally signified their intentions to remain and become citizens of the States according to provisions of the said treaty, the names Susan Graham and Ann V. Lewellen are returned; and that, on the said register, each of them is represented as having a child. It is apprehended, therefore, that by virtue of the said report of the agent, contained in the said register, that each of them, the said Susannah Graham and Ann V. Lewellen, is entitled to a full section of land under the 14th article of the said treaty. I have, &c. Elbert Herring. To the honorable Lewis Cass, Secretary of War."149

"Department of War, Office Indian Affairs, 29 June, 1832. Sir: I have the honor to report upon the request of Mrs. Susannah Graham, communicated to the department by the Hon. Mr. Plummer on the 28th instant.

Mrs. Graham's namer was returned to this office by Major Armstrong as a head of family who wished to become a citizen under the 14th article of the treaty of 1830. As such, she would be entitled to a section of 640 acres, and each of her two unmarried children would be entitled to a section of 320 acres. Of these sections they would be entitled to receive a deed in fee simple, if they resided upon, and cultivated them, for five years after the ratification of the treaty.

Mrs. Graham's present request is, that the Government would release her from this engagement to become citizen, and permit her to take a reservation under the 19th article of the treaty.

That article granted a section of 640 acres to heads of families, (not to exceed 40 in number,) who, during the year 1830, had in actual cultivation fifty acres or more, with a dwelling-house thereon. It appears that not more than ten or eleven persons have taken reservations under this article, and Mrs. Graham is in all respects within provisions. To entitle herself to all the benefits of them, however, she should signify her wish to do prior to the 1st of January 1832, which she did not do, and of course, has lost her right, if her request had been granted, to relinquish to the United States, but may sell to individuals, with consent of the President.

JOHNSON

Wade Union

The Johnson Cemetery, officially recorded in the Jackson County land records as Wade Union Cemetery is located on the east side of Highway 63 in the Wade community, Section 34, Township 4, Range 6.

This cemetery name may have been adapted from the family who lived there, Samuel Wyles Johnson and wife Maria Graham Johnson. Samuel Wyles Johnson came to Jackson Co, MS after his service in the Mexican War. In the Jackson Co, Miss 1850 Census, he was a teacher and had recently married Mariah/Maria Graham, daughter of William Graham (died 1834) and Elizabeth Cumbest Graham Hughes (buried in this cemetery). Samuel was born in Georgetown District, South Carolina, and also served in the Seminole War.

Samuel enlisted in the 27th Miss Infantry and was given the rank of 2nd Lt. He gave up his life at the Battle of Missionary Ridge near Lookout Mountain in 1863 as 1st Lt. It is believed that he is buried in Bridgeport, Ala., a town on the Tennessee River, just south of Chattanooga. The grave site is believed to be at the home of a family who took care of him as a wounded soldier until he died.

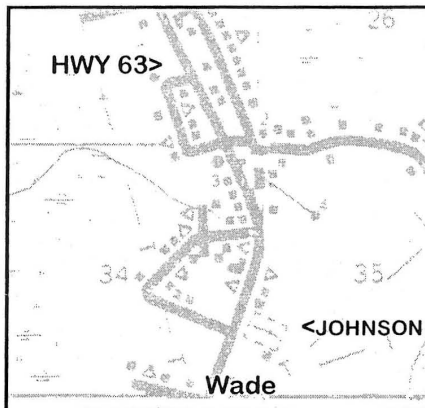

Samuel and Mariah were parents of six, Frances Marion Johnson, William Jasper Johnson, Preston Butler Johnson, Elizabeth Graves Johnson, Mary Lee Pauline Johnson and Sam Houston Johnson.

Recording and information was compiled by Mary Johnson Goff, July 22, 1970 for Requiem, Volume II and updated by Betty Clark Rodgers and Else Martin, Feb 1992. The recording was updated again in 2003 by Else Martin. Melba Allen provided dates and relationships.

We were lucky to have several visits with Mary Johnson Goff before she died. The records she kept were extremely valuable in documenting the many unmarked graves. The Johnson Cemetery Association includes many dedicated members who keep the cemetery up. Before his death Monroe Johnson gave us valuable assistance with a great deal of extra information about the families and relationships. A special marker is on the entrance gate post, which reads: "Mary Johnson Goff, In Recognition & Appreciation for her dedication to the Cemetery."

There was a surprise party given Wednesday night to Miss May Farragut.
The party met at the residence of Mr.
C. Nelson and was chaperoned by Mrs.
W. D. Bullard and Mrs. B. H. Pickett.
Games and dancing were indulged in and refreshments served.

Death of Mrs. Nelson.

Mrs. Fannie E. Nelson, nee Graham, wife of W. H. Nelson, a prominent merchant of Escatawpa, died at her residence Friday last. Mrs. Nelson leaves besides her husband several children including an infant born just before her death occurred, besides many other near relatives, most of whom live in the same town as did the deceased. Mrs.
Nelson's funeral was held Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, first from her residence, thence from the Zion church with the interment in the Zion cemetery.

Enjoyable Outing to Horn Island.

The splendid tug Pascagoula was placed in commission Monday evening by Commodore Walter Gautier to carry a large and congenial party to Horn Island. The excursion was given in honor of Hon. John R. O'Donohoe and family of Breaux Bridge, La., who are visiting relatives in this city and at Gautier. The weather was propitious and promptly at three o'clock the tug left its dock with the happy company.
Suri bathing was indulged in and merry making was the order of the evening's entertainment. Delicious refreshments were served. The boat returned at 11:30 p. m. Speaking of the outing, Mr. O'Donohoe said that it was one of the finest trips he had ever made. "There is no coast in the south that can furnish better advantages for genuine summer pleasure than Pascagoula."

Pascagoula Northern Railroad Makes Report.

Jackson, Miss., August 26.—(Bureau Special)—The Pascagoula North-

very liberally in the stock of the Gulf Coast Life Insurance Co., which shows that the company has a standing at home and also the confidence of the people. A combination of men and money is indispensable to the success of any great enterprise. Money alone is a dead thing.
Men without money may dream and hope,
and even plan great things, but only plans that are wisely formed and vigorously executed live, and men, no matter how wise they be, must have money to build and perpetuate great institutions.
The Gulf Coast Life Insurance Co. has both men and money. It has back of it in its local support the combined power of money, human intelligence and cooperation. Its foundations have been laid deep and wide and strong. They rest upon the bedrock of Mississippi's best citizenship, and upon the correct scientific principals of life insurance as enunciated by the most successful companies, and proven by them through more than 60 years of active experience.

It is intended that the stock of this company shall be thoroughly distributed throughout a large territory. It is further intended that no one stockholder shall purchase a large number of shares. At the present ratio there will be more than 3000 stockholders of this company, and no other company in the South will have a greater number.

The following are some of the advantages from having many stockholders thoroughly scattered throughout the state:

The tremendous accelerated influence of such a large number of influential citizens in inspiring unlimited confidence in the company.

2. The greater increased volume of new insurance that can be written thereby.

3. The increased ease with which such new business can be written would thereby enlist the better class of agents at reduced cost to the company.

We have looked over the plans of the Gulf Coast Life Insurance Co. and its list of stockholders and we find it to be a "going, growing" concern, and with the army of salesmen the company has recently sent out in the state to sell stock we predict that it is only a few months until all the stock of the company will have been placed, and this, too, among the very best people of the state of Mississippi. No company could ask for better local support, and with the present impetus which the company has it should have no difficulty in placing its stock.
It is expected to have some further news from this company within a few days that will be gratifying to local citizens.

AGED LADY DIES AT HOME OF DAUGHTER.

After an illness extending over a period of several years, Mrs. Annie Letitia Graham died Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Goff, on North
Pascagoula street. Although Mrs.
Graham had been ill for some time,
her death came suddenly, brought on
by an attack of the heart.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon from the residence and services were held at Zion M. E.
Church in Escatawpa, conducted by the Rev. J. E. Meigs, pastor of Pascagoula Methodist church. Interment was made in Zion cemetery.

Mrs. Graham had attained the advanced age of 79 years and one month. She had made her home in Pascagoula for four years, and prior to that resided in Escatawpa, where she reared a large family and enjoyed a wide acquaintance. Surviving her are three children, Mrs. W.
B. Goff and S. C. Graham of Pascagoula, and Mrs. J. R. Grierson of Moss Point; also a large number of other relatives, including twenty-two grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

AGED LADY DIES AT HOME OF DAUGHTER.

After an illness extending over a period of several years, Mrs. Annie Letitia Graham died Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Goff, on North
Pascagoula street. Although Mrs.
Graham had been ill for some time,
her death came suddenly, brought on
by an attack of the heart.

The funeral took place Tuesday
afternoon from the residence and
services were held at Zion M. E.
Church in Escatawpa, conducted by the Rev. J. E. Meigs, pastor of Pascagoula Methodist church. Interment was made in Zion cemetery.

Mrs. Graham had attained the advanced age of 79 years and one month. She had made her home in Pascagoula for four years, and prior
to that resided in Escatawpa, where
she reared a large family and enjoyed a wide acquaintance. Surviving her are three children, Mrs. W.
B. Goff and S. C. Graham of Pascagoula, and Mrs. J. R. Grierson of Moss Point; also a large number of
other relatives, including twenty-two grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

the learned and the unlearned.—Jer-ame Taylor.
